Experts limp into Week 4

A 15-5 week typically gives you a finish in the middle of the pack.

But not during Week 3.

Eight "experts" went 15-5 last week, which didn't help the overall standings. Now seven people are within three games of first place.

Bill Castrovince limped into first place with Joshua Hudson and John Vargo one game behind.

This week might be the hardest one to pick this season. Poland-Lakeview, Massillon-Ursuline, Howland-Canfield and McDonald-Wellsville are probably the toughest games to pick.

Hopefully Week 4 is a bit kinder to the "experts."
