

Fearless Football Forecast

Hudson holds on to the lead

Josh Hudson remains the leader heading into Week 5 with a one-point lead over John Vargo.

Then, Ed Puskas, Lou Cali, Dana Sulonen, Bill Castrovence and Vince Peluso trail Hudson by five games.

The host of prognosticators had a handful of tough games this week, including, an All-American Conference White Division matchup with Hubbard traveling to Lakeview. The Eagles haven't lost since their opening loss at Poland. All but four forecasters went with Hubbard.

The Fitch at GlenOak game gave some to think about this week as four went with the Falcons.
