Prognosticators fall in Week 6

Another wild week for the Tribune prognosticators.

Most of them were stumped on five games. Only four had Mathews as it dominated Py-matuning Valley, while only two had Windham over Rootstown, North Canton Hoover over Boardman and Massillon Jackson over Fitch. Lou Cali was the lone person to pick United over Mineral Ridge.

Cali and Andrew Whitmer each had a 17-3 performance last week. Cali trails John Vargo by one game. Dana Sulonen and Joshua Hudson are two games back.

Some games to watch are Campbell at Champion, Liberty at Lakeview and Kennedy at St. Thomas Aquinas.
